

Rudi West

Rudi West started his career in comedy in the early eighties with comedy show band Madison Avenue, from there he embarked on a solo career which saw him winning "New Faces" in 1986 numerous TV appearances followed including "The Next Step" "Live at her majesties and Summertime Special. In the nineties he starred in a Sky T.V special "Stand and Deliver" and one of the first "Fly on the wall" documentaries "The entertainers" His ability to move with the changing face of comedy saw him appear at the Edinburgh Fringe in 1999 and trying his hand at T.V warm up for several productions including Question of sport and "My Family"

Rudi West is most at home performing his award winning stand up and has appeared at premier venues both home and abroad. With an ability to tailor his material to a given audience Rudi is the perfect choice for club- cruise and corporate events and is especially sort after as an after dinner speaker.

RECENT CLIENTS

Daily Mail Sports Writers Dinner

Football Writers Player of the Year

Sport Newcastle.